

Interim Religious Education Professional (DRE or Minister)

Full or Part Time

Unitarian Society of New Haven (USNH), Hamden, CT

The Unitarian Society of New Haven seeks an experienced religious education professional (DRE or Minister) to serve in an Interim capacity, beginning as soon as possible but no later than August 2007 and continuing through June 2008. Training in interim religious education ministry is available for qualified candidates.

The Interim RE Professional will provide staff leadership and support for the lifespan religious education program in a vibrant congregation of approximately 400 adults and 140 children and youth and will work as part of a senior staff team under the leadership of the Senior Minister.

Primary responsibility will be to work with the Children and Youth RE and Adult RE committees to support and further develop programming for all ages. Current programs include RE classes and nursery care during two Sunday services, children's and intergenerational worship, a high school youth group, and well-attended adult programs.

Candidate sought is a strong facilitator and administrator with experience in a mid-sized congregation, and with the skills to nurture and support the congregation's families, children, and RE volunteers. Compensation is commensurate with experience. This position can be structured as full time or part time (minimum of 20 hours per week).
